Durham Police Arrest Two People on Drug Trafficking Charges

Investigators from the Durham Police Department's Special Operations Division arrested two people on drug trafficking charges on Friday. Investigators recovered close to 3½ kilos (7 pounds, 10.8 ounces) of powder cocaine (worth at least $70,000), two firearms and more than $14,000 in cash.

Simon Gonzalez, 41, of North Hyde Park Avenue was charged with five counts of trafficking in cocaine and several other felony drug charges. He was placed in Durham County Jail under a $3 million bond.

Guadalupe Garcia-Martinez, 48, of North Hyde Park Avenue was charged with conspiring to traffic cocaine. She was placed in Durham County Jail under a $500,000 bond.
